Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

The first species or the embodiment where the at least two devices requiring cooling air comprise a pack bay ventilation system and an onboard oxygen generation system; the second species or the embodiment where the at least two devices requiring cooling air comprise a pack bay ventilation system and an onboard inert gas generation system; the third species or the embodiment where the at least two devices requiring cooling air comprise an unpressurized bay ventilation system and an onboard oxygen generation system; the fourth species or the embodiment where the at least two devices requiring cooling air comprise an unpressurized bay ventilation system and an onboard inert gas generation system; and, the fifth species where the at least two devices requiring cooling air comprise an onboard oxygen generation system and an onboard inert gas generation system.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Claims 1 through 11, 13, and 15 through 17 correspond to the first species.
Claims 1 through 11 and 14 through 17 correspond to the second species.

Art Unit: 3744

Claims 1 through 10, 12, 13, and 15 through 17 correspond to the third species.

Claims 1 through 10, 12, and 14 through 17 correspond to the fourth species.

Claims 1 through 10 and 13 through 17 correspond to the fifth species.

The following claim is generic: claim 1.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the first species and second species lack the unpressurized bay ventilation system of the third and fourth species; the third and fourth species lack the pack bay ventilation system of the first and second species; the first and third species lack the onboard inert gas generation system of the second, fourth and fifth species; the second and fourth species lack the onboard oxygen generation system of the first, third, and fifth species; and, the fifth species lacks the pack bay ventilation system of the first and second species as well as the unpressurized bay ventilation system of the third and fourth species.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
